About the Tenant

The subject property is operated by Motley 7 Brew, LLC, which operates 22 7 Brews in Ohio, Texas and Georgia. The company is a rapidly expanding real estate and franchise operator, supported by the experienced management team at Anchor Point Management (100+ professionals) and led by President Rick Nader, who has 35+ years of industry experience, namely with his previous experience at Pacific Bells, a best-in-class Taco Bell operator, where he managed 270+ units.

With a strong foundation of approximately 100 seasoned professionals, Motley 7 Brew leverages deep multi-unit expertise and a robust back-office infrastructure, which has gained its best practices across multiple brands to optimize operations. Motley 7 Brew is actively growing in Ohio and Georgia, with a significant 40-unit development agreement in Texas, positioning itself for aggressive market expansion.

About Parma Heights, Ohio

Parma Heights, Ohio is a suburb of Cleveland of approximately 20,000 residents. It is actively positioning itself for long-term economic growth through targeted development strategies and infrastructure improvements. The city’s economy is anchored by healthcare, manufacturing, and retail trade—each employing over 1,300 residents. Workforce composition is diverse, with a concentration in administrative support, production, and sales occupations. A key component of the city's strategy is its Master Plan, which aims to unify the commercial core, civic spaces, and residential areas, making the community more walkable and business-friendly.

Recent investments include road improvements, enhanced public amenities, and economic development loan programs offering low fixed-rate financing to attract and retain businesses. These efforts support job creation and promote private investment. Additionally, the city emphasizes cultural and historical preservation, contributing to community identity and tourism. Overall, Parma Heights is fostering a well-rounded environment for sustainable economic development.
